REZONING PROCEDURE

The following process takes anywhere from 60 to 90 days to complete.

Step 1, Pre-Application Meeting: Prior to submitting an application the landowner or their agent must schedule a meeting with County Community Development Department staff to discuss the application and the process. Since Towns have statutory authority to disapprove of a rezoning request, applicants are encouraged to also meet with Township officials prior to submitting an application to the County to ascertain their level of support for the request.

Step 2, Application Submittal and Review: Applications are due on the 1st Monday of the month. Applications will not be accepted if the applicant has not met with staff prior to submitting an application. The application must include all items identified on the checklist. After a preliminary review, additional information may be requested. Once it has been determined that all requested information has been obtained the application will undergo an interdepartmental and interagency review. This review includes notification to the Town in which the request takes place.

Step 3, Town Review and Comment: As identified in Step 2, the interagency review process involves notification to the applicable Town for their consideration and comment. Under Wisconsin State Statute § 59.69 Towns have the authority to disapprove a rezoning request before the County Board. While individual Towns may have different processes for review and comment back to the County, all Towns will likely place the rezoning request on an agenda for discussion and recommendation by their Town Board. The applicant should follow this process closely and ensure that the issue is placed on a Town agenda and a resolution supporting the request is forwarded to the County in a timely manner. Approval by the County is difficult to obtain without formal Town support.

Step 4, Public Hearing: All rezoning requests must undergo a public hearing before the St. Croix County Community Development Committee. A notice of the hearing is published in local newspapers for 2 weeks prior to the scheduled hearing date. Notice of the hearing is also sent to all adjacent property owners. Hearings are typically held on the 3rd Thursday of the month (subject to change) in Hudson or Baldwin following completion of the interdepartmental and interagency review.

Step 5, County Board Approval: Upon approval by the Community Development Committee, a recommendation is forwarded to the County Board for action at their next regularly scheduled meeting. Once approved by the County Board the rezoning is complete, pending any conditions that may have been placed on the approval.
