PRESS RELEASE

April 6, 2021

On Tuesday, April 6, 2021, at about 5:59 a.m., the St. Croix County Emergency Communication Center received a call from a motorist reporting a vehicle that appeared to have crashed into the railroad bridge pillar in the 2500 block of CTH S in Emerald Township. The caller advised the road was blocked from the crash, and that there was a person outside of the vehicle who appeared to be deceased. Deputies were dispatched to the scene, along with local fire and EMS.

The driver was identified as Luke Loomis, age 26, from Glenwood City, Wis. He was pronounced dead at the scene by the St. Croix County Medical Examiner. Mr. Loomis was driving a 2018 Toyota Camry. He was not wearing a seat belt at the time of the crash.

Mr. Loomis was westbound on CTH S at the time of the crash. From the information gathered during this investigation thus far, it appears this crash occurred in the late hours of April 5.

The St. Croix County Sheriff's Office was assisted by the Glenwood City Fire and EMS departments and the St. Croix County Medical Examiner's Office.

This is the second traffic fatality recorded by St. Croix County in 2021.

This incident remains under investigation.
